

Travelling to Moià, Vic or Collsuspina from other parts of Spain:

Moià & Collsuspina are easiest by rental car or taxi. There are buses from central Barcelona but it is a really long-winded route and takes a while as they stop along the way. If people prefer not to drive themselves, we suggest groups take taxis from Barcelona. We can recommend companies with which you/they can pre-book and some are 8 seaters. To Vic a taxi is around 150€ and the same to Moià.

Vic:

Train and Bus are good from Barcelona or Girona

Or again take taxis - once shared between 4-8 people they are not expensive.

With our wedding, we recommended people form groups to travel up here and then they either shared rental cars or we gave them taxi contacts.
